

3. Armour Lionel Hunia Life song

Sung by Stan Reihana

© Nicky Moran 2018 lyrics, music

Verse 1:

My life was riding a horse on a bridge
The world's armour heavy upon me
Falling down waters that swallowed me whole
Leaving the armour, I had to break free

Verse 2:

I had to completely leave it behind
Pride and hatred had weighed down upon me
Foul attitudes, violence, abuse
And every last thing that bound me

Chorus:

7 years, 9 months, needing to go through it
Losing everything, realising it's worth it
Gaining life with Him, knowing we're not perfect
Staying tuned to God, had to accept it

Verse 3:

I realised one thing as I learned to let go
I was a sinner, what an awakening
Hurting my Father God, my family
And everyone I knew all around me

Verse 4:

Heart breaking realising what I had been
God's love helped me to let it all go
I gave it all to Him, asked Him to come right in Still I heard the challenger say, "No!"

Chorus:

Bridge:

Just how high I can go?
Just how low I can go?
He'll never let me down, this I know
There's no other guarantee
Jesus grace has saved me
No one else to trust in, this I know

Opportunity called me by name

I stepped in, never the same
Stripped down to my soul
Bare to my Bible
With the power and love of God
Truth and testimony
Let God be judge, we get to love
Like the Bible

Chorus:

Verse 5:

My life is riding a horse on a ridge
The Lord's armour safely upon me
Calling now daughters and sons to be whole
Leaving the bygones I help set them free
Set them free
