Bonus track sung by Nicky Moran

© Nicky Moran 2018 lyrics, music

Verse 1:

Don't close the door on your way out My child
Yes, you're leaving Me again
But I know the darkness will close its grip
When you're lost and alone My friend

Verse 2:

I've always known who you really are Always walked the path with you
Wanted you to know the truth in this life
As your hope confidently grew, oh

Chorus:

I have loved you forever, forever
Even before time began
I have called you forever, forever
Wont you come home again?

Verse 3:

I've demonstrated My heart's desire
To bring love and family to you
To be the One you can trust the most
It's who I Am, it's what I do

Verse 4:

I've called out to your heart's longing
And forgiven your past mistakes
Will you walk right back to Me, My love
Let Me heal where your soul aches, oh

Chorus:

Verse 5:

Walk towards the light, oh yes My friend
Don't let the darkness win
I have a banquet table spread out for us
Hear My love calling you back in

Verse 6:

I know the lonely place you are
You're so tired, falling asleep
But wake up and taste and see that I'm good
So you don't need to weep, oh

Chorus:

Bridge x4:

I'm calling you home, home
I'm calling you home
